Hi, I'm Ion 👋

Ion Cazac, Senior Product Designer. I build products, from first idea to launch. 12+ years across mobility, fintech and developer tools — most recently as an AI-native product builder at Flovi. Product designer, owner, mentor and early AI adopter. EU based, working with teams across Europe and the US.

"He's not just a designer — you get a strategic partner, a systems thinker, and someone who deeply cares about delivering meaningful experiences."

Roni Dover · CTO & Co-Founder at Digma

"Ion joined ORB as our first UX Designer. He's got a real talent for making complex stuff simple and user-friendly."

Thomas Quinn · CTO & Co-Founder ORB Innovations

"Ion not only grasped my concept but also took it to the next level."

Daniel Björk · CEO & Founder Reviall

"I wish there were more designers like Ion in this industry. Positive, loyal, innovative, the list goes on."

Dan Taub · Lead Designer Gala Games

"I found him to be both professional and reliable, which made him a pleasure to work with."

Gabriel Shaoolian · CEO & Founder Digital Silk
